Nancy Wynne Discusses Many Subjects—D. A. R.'s Philadelphia Chapter Has Large Red Cross Auxiliary—Juniors of Saturday Club to Entertain

DON'T you wonder what on earth they are going to do about the opera here? There's the heatless night on Tuesdays, you know, for theatres and opera houses, and so the performances have all been indefinitely postponed until some decision is made.

Among the prominent members who are taking a personal interest in the affair are Mrs. J. B. Allen, Mrs. Robert Schellenger, Mrs. Charles Leisen and Mrs. E. A. Schellenger.

THE Philadelphia Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution Auxiliary of the American Red Cross is doing interesting work. The chapter, which has Mrs. Charles Nevin as regent, is located at 1126 Spruce street, and the rooms there are given over entirely to Red Cross work.

During the last week they have been having a drive, in which they tried to exceed all the previous work they have done, and from the report it seems as if they must have succeeded pretty well, for they have turned out 200 2 1/2, 2 1/2 wipers, 200 4 by 5 compresses, 200 8 by 12 cotton pads, 200 12 by 24 cotton pads, 60 14 by 24 paper-back pads and numerous other dressings.

N., of the Naval Home, and Mrs. George Powell, wife of Doctor Powell, U. S. N., stationed at the home. AN EVENING bridge party will be held on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the ballroom of the Manhattan Cricket Club. The French wounded fund has decided to raise money in this way to carry on its splendid work. Both men and women are invited and an informal supper will be served at a quarter to eleven.

This organization has been in existence two years and in that time has done a really remarkable amount of work. The meetings are held every Tuesday morning in the ballroom of the Manhattan Cricket Club, from 10 until 12 o'clock. Banquets and all kinds of surgical dressings are made. Besides this, Mrs. George Newhall collects little knitted squares, which she sews together to make quilts for the Belgian children.

Through the generosity of the Germantown Cricket Club, and the service of its employees, there will be no expenses connected with the bridge party, so that all contributions can be used for materials. Mrs. Tolbert N. Richardson is president of the organization; Mrs. William Fricke Newhall is treasurer, and Mrs. John Hamilton Shinn, secretary.

The heads of the work tables include Mrs. George M. Newhall, Mrs. John M. Fricke, Mrs. Samuel B. Van Dusen, Mrs. William B. Kurtz, Mrs. W. M. Mearns, Mrs. Charles Dixey Shellenberger, Miss Lincoln, Mrs. E. E. Deming, Mrs. G. Elwood Wagner, Mrs. Harry E. Sharp, Mrs. J. W. Roberts, Mrs. Emily Watersfield and Mrs. Bradford Ritter.

Minor Stearns has charge of the refreshments; Mr. Daniel O'Connell is chairman of the music committee, Mr. Thomas Usher is chairman of the invitation committee, and Mr. Robert Williamson has charge of the refreshments.
